

Netsurit IT Rental

Want IT? Rent IT!

Once-off conferences and special events; a sudden influx of staff; the arrival of an overseas contingent; a sudden growth spurt in your business; a temporary replacement for damage, loss or theft; trying out a new configuration without upfront spending; or a lack of cash flow due to uncertain times. There are many good reasons to consider IT rental.

At Netsurit, we offer short and long term IT rental solutions to suit your exact needs and requirements. All the equipment is state-of-the-art, costs are covered up-front and you have the option to purchase at the end of the agreement.

Short term rentals

Short term rental solutions are best for companies looking to replace equipment that has been lost or stolen or when extra equipment is needed for a limited time.

Long term rentals

Long term rental solutions avoid major capital expense, protects cash reserves and aid the pre-planning of cash flows. Your cash or equity can therefore be more usefully invested in high-yielding projects and core business interests.
